Sixth Grade Will Aid In Cleanup Drive In City

The sixth grade classes of Austin School are giving Chestnut a "bath". On Tuesday, April 25, they will cooperate with the city in City Clean Up Week. They are going to clean about a mile of our city, from 4th to 16th street and put trash collected on display between eighth and tenth on Chestnut.

A committee of children and a teacher composed of Phyllis Mitchell, Rebecca Tarry, Eddie Young, Bob Dunn, and Mr. Garth Petrie, met with Mayor Ellis and received his approval of this project. He promised cooperation of a city police car and the city clean up truck.

The chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, James Johnson expressed his appreciation of the school children's enthusiasm and work.

This project came about through an appeal of Governor Combs for the school people to help make Kentucky a cleaner, greener, and a more beautiful place in which to live and visit.

The sixth grade children of A. B. Austin with the approval of the principal, Dennis Taylor, expressed their desire to make a personal contribution and an appeal to the people of Murray to do their part in keeping Kentucky clean.

Some of the committee doing special work are the sign committee composed of Sharon Bogard, Claudette Cook, Karin Olla, Kay Pinky, Linda Ryan; display committee composed of: Jimmie Dan Robinson, Steve Bell, Tommy Williams, Bill Hart, and Buist Scott.

Millions of dollars are spent on cleaning parks and highways annually. This money could have been spent building highways and parks. Please don't be a litter-bug when you could be enjoying the conveniences of a modern highway and a green park. Thousands of people are killed or injured each year from dodging litter on our highways.

Calloway High Wins Over Cuba

A base-stealing Calloway County High School squad scored a 9-0 victory over the host Cuba Cubs yesterday. The Lakers got sound hitting and strong arm pitching in wrapping up the win with an early lead.

Ronnie Roberts and Dan Patterson divided mound duties for Calloway in limiting the Cubs to only two hits. The Lakers who committed only one error, stole 13 bases during the game.

Larry Gilbert, centerfielder, stole five of the bases and came through with some timely hitting with two singles in three times at bat. Roberts, the pitcher, had two for four, a double and a triple. Roberts has now had two home runs, a double, and a triple in nine trips to the plate. Gilbert has connected on four of his seven times up.

Calloway played a total of 18 men in the game sending in a second squad in the fifth inning. Cuba broke the ice with a two run sport in the first inning. The Lakers scored off front with six runs in the top of the second, picked up two in the fifth and added another in the sixth. Cuba scored lone runs in both the third and sixth innings.

Letter to the Editor

We know that books create new interests, collect new friends, retain old ones support us in loneliness, compose our cares, chasten our passions, help us to forget the rough places, point us to higher achievements, assist us in giving instruction to youth, and help us in practical guidance and productivity. In fact, books touch life in every phase of human experience.

THIS LIBRARY WEEK a visit to the new location on Sixth Street is a revelation. It reveals the interest of dedicated women to the cultural life of the community. It also shows alertness to the educational advantages to be gained by capitalizing on the available means the state has to offer by way of library aid. These women are determined to utilize all resources which can be had through organization and the demonstration of interest.

The equipment and number of volumes are, of course, limited for the time being. The need is apparent, the opportunities for reading service are unlimited, and the reputation for community concern for its cultural emphasis is at stake. Those in attendance at Open House sensed a need and a challenge. Our first reaction was its desirability and, concurrently, its inadequacy. Here, we said, was an opportunity for every patriotic organization, every civic-minded institution, every social club, every religious society and every industrial agency to make a contribution.

The book files had many fictional volumes, but the non-fiction such as science, drama, in- (Continued on Page 3)

"Don't Know Why They Did It" Says Mother Of Four

MIAMI (UP) — A pretty mother of four who spent the night listening to Havana radio broadcasts heard the news she dreaded early today: that Fidel Castro had executed her husband.

"I don't know why I just don't know why they did it," brunette Mrs. Dorothy Anderson said at her home here.

Mrs. Anderson, 38, heard on the Havana radio broadcast that her husband, Howard, 41, had been executed by a firing squad at dawn along with another American and seven Cubans accused of anti-Castro activities.

She heard the news not long after making an 11th hour appeal for her popular and well known husband in a broadcast beamed to Cuba over a Miami radio station.

She called on "freedom-loving Cubans to do what you can to help 'Andy'."

"Do what you can for him because of his mother and his children, and wife who loves him," Cuban-born Mrs. Anderson said dramatically in Spanish late Tuesday night. She had learned her husband had been condemned to the firing squad after a Castro court trial but she hoped somehow to save his life.

The other American executed today was Angus McNair Jr., 25, who lived in Coral Gables. His father, a retired accountant, left town with the boy's mother Tuesday night, not knowing that his son's execution had been ordered for today.

Bonus Checks Will Begin Next Week

By JAMES RENNEISEN

United Press International
FRANKFORT, Ky. (UP) — One week from today the first Kentucky veterans' bonus check will be mailed to a Hancock County farmer who has spent the last eight years in a iron lung.

This first of a flood of bonus checks to follow will go to Wilbur E. Arnold, 39, of Hawesville, who will receive the full maximum benefit of $500 as a result of his 37 months of overseas service with the 886th Chemical Company in World War II.

It is expected that he would receive the first check, Arnold expressed what undoubtedly will be the sentiments of thousands of other veterans. "We can certainly use it."

Since he was stricken by polio in June of 1933 Arnold has eked out a living for his wife and two boys only with the help of Veterans Administration benefits, and some payments from the March of Dimes organization for medical expenses. Eligible for the bonus are Kentucky veterans of the Spanish-American War, World War I and II, and the Korean War, — or, in many cases, their survivors.

Altogether before the last claim is paid years from now, the bonus is expected to cost the Commonwealth of Kentucky meaning her taxpayers — more than $900 million.

Stacked high in the treasurer's office are file boxes full of cryptically punched little cards that activate the check-writing machines. All that is needed now to set those machines whirring and clicking are these few steps:

1. Delivery of the bonds and collection of payment, scheduled for next Tuesday;

2. Signing of the pay-out warrants by state Commissioner of Finance Robert F. Matthews Jr.;

3. Signing of the checks by Mrs. Stoval.

The state treasurer will sign Arnold's check personally. The thousands of checks will be signed with her facsimile signature by the machines.

Mail boxes will be closely watched at thousands of Kentucky homes in the next few weeks and months.

Band To Play For Children

The Murray State Band will present a special concert for the children of Calloway County's elementary schools tomorrow morning at 9:30 in the College Auditorium.

The program, which will be directed by Prof. Paul W. Shahan, is co-sponsored by the Murray Women's Club and the fine arts department of Murray State.

Each year the band, orchestra, and choir each give one concert especially planned for the musical education of the county's school children.

In past years Mr. Shahan has discussed with the audiences the functions of the composer and of the conductor and how they relate themselves and their art to the music. This performance he plans to emphasize the relation to the music of the audience and its reactions.

The special program will feature such pieces as the "Triumphal March" from "Peter and the Wolf" by Serge Prokofiev. It will be narrated by Howard Potter, Junior from La Porte, Ind.

The band will also present the "Mother Goose Suite" by Maurice Ravel, Leonard Bernstein's "West Side Story," and "Holiday in Spain," recently published by Prof. Shahan.

Jurors In Trial Of Mrs. Lassiter May Be Guarded

DETROIT, Mich. (UP) — Circuit Judge Joseph G. Rashid suggested today that jurors hearing the murder trial of Mrs. Nellie Lassiter and Gordon Watson be locked up in a downtown Detroit hotel for the duration of the trial.

Rashid presented the motion to the prosecution and defense when one juror, Alger S. Stedman, told the court he had received a number of telephone calls from cranks and well wishers Tuesday night after he was picked on the jury.

A jury of 11 men and three women was sworn in by Rashid Tuesday afternoon to decide whether charges were true that Mrs. Lassiter and Watson plotted the April 1959 slaying of Mrs. Lassiter's husband and hired assassins to kill Marvin (Bill) Lassiter.

The names of the jurors were printed in Detroit newspapers and Rashid expressed concern that members of the jury might be plagued with telephone calls throughout the trial. Rashid called the jury members into his chambers individually to discuss the possibility of keeping them in a downtown hotel until the trial ends.

The judge said he also was considering holding Saturday sessions in order to expedite the trial, which is expected to last four to six weeks.

The reported telephone calls to Stedman and legal wrangling of seating of witnesses in the court room during the trial delayed opening statements by the prosecution and defense.

Joseph W. Louissell, attorney for the 39-year-old Mrs. Lassiter, asked that all witnesses be barred from the courtroom except when they were testifying.

Rashid agreed to bar the witnesses except for two state police officers who worked on the case from the time Lassiter's body was found on a private estate near Willow Run Airport two years ago.

Louissell also complained about the smallness of the courtroom and suggested that the trial be held at the Old County Building, but Rashid said it would not be possible to change the site.

Selection of the jury took two days. Sixty-five prospective jurors were examined in all. Twelve were excused for cause after they admitted forming an opinion in the case, another 39 were dismissed on pre-employment challenges.

Both Mrs. Lassiter and Watson appeared interested, but relaxed, during the examination of jurors. The only time Mrs. Lassiter showed any emotion was in the closing minutes of the session, when Asst. Wayne County Prosecutor George Kent asked the judge to endorse Mrs. Lassiter's brother-in-law George W. Wood of Trenton, Mich., as a witness.

Kent said Wood would testify "to threats on the life of Mr. Lassiter by Mrs. Lassiter."

The pretty grandmother rose from her seat to protest, but apparently changed her mind.

Judge Rashid endorsed Wood along with James Smith, a Beverly Hills, Mich., police officer who received a "missing person" report on her husband from Mrs. Lassiter.

They were only two of the dozens of witnesses who are expected to take the stand during the trial, which may last several weeks.

Among those testifying for the prosecution will be Richard Jones, 28, Roy Hicks, 38, and Charles Nash, 42, all of Chattanooga, Tenn., who are already serving life terms for the actual shooting of Lassiter near the Willow Run Airport in April, 1959. They were found guilty of a second degree murder last year.

Mrs. Lassiter and Watson are charged with plotting Lassiter's murder with the three men.

The co-defendants, who have admitted an extra-marital love affair, remained within whispering distance of each other during the examination of the jurors but didn't speak or show any sign of recognition.

Mrs. Lassiter was accompanied to the court by her sister, Mrs. Mildred Ward of Murray, Ky., originally her home.

Watson, who presently lives at Culver City, Calif., was accompanied by his wife, Nell, a slight, soft-spoken woman with greying hair.

Watson was suffering from a slight cold, which he blamed on his return to the damp Michigan climate.

At the conclusion of Tuesday's session the prosecution and defense joined in requesting a change in courtrooms on the grounds that the regular courtroom is too small to conduct the trial properly.

The matter was taken under consideration.

Alston Discovers Los Angeles Has Plenty Of Long Ball Power To Go With Dodger Hustle

By FRED DOWN

Manager Walt Alston is discovering that his Los Angeles Dodgers have plenty of muscle to go with their hustle.

Lack of long ball strength was the weakness that Alston feared would be the Dodgers' No. 1 problem this season but the evidence of the first week of the National League campaign is that Los Angeles has surprising punch to go with its speed and pitching. In eight games they've hit a total of 11 homers and they've been distributed liberally throughout the lineup.

The Dodgers won a battle of homers Tuesday night when they downed the St. Louis Cardinals 5-4, and enabled the Cincinnati Reds to take over first place with their 9-1 shellacking of the San Francisco Giants. The Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Chicago Cubs 5-3, and the Minnesota Twins topped the Boston Red Sox 3-2 for their fifth win in six games in the only other major league action.

Hit Three Homers
Frank Howard smashed a two-run homer and Johnny Roseboro and Wally Moon also homered to account for four of the Dodgers' five runs. The blows offset somewhat shaky Los Angeles pitching in addition to two homers by St. Louis' Ken Boyer.

Roger Craig received credit for the Dodgers' fourth victory in eight games although he was followed to the mound by rookies Jim Golden and Ron Perranoski. Perranoski took over in the eighth inning and protected the one-run margin through the last two frames.

The Reds went into first place behind a six-hit pitching performance by Bob Purkey, who raised his lifetime advantage over the Giants to 12-8. Purkey, winning his second game of the young season, struck out four and walked only three. His bid for a shut-out was ruined in the seventh inning when Willie Mays hit his second homer of the year.

The Reds routed Billy Loes with six hits and six runs in two innings and went on to collect 10 hits including a three-run homer by Gordon Coleman. Wally Pate had three hits and Eddie Kasko, Coleman and Gene Freese two each in Cincinnati's attack.

Stuart Paces Bucs

Vinegar Bend Mizell, aided by Elroy Face's two innings of shut-out relief, picked up his first win of the season for the Pirates. Dick Stuart tripled home a 2-2 tie-breaking run in the fifth inning and singled home the run that snapped a 3-3 tie in the seventh.

to lead the world champions' 12-hit attack. Stuart, Dick Groat, Roberto Clemente and Bill Virdon each had two hits for the Pirates and Ron Santo had two for the Cubs.

Left-handers Jim Kaat and Bill Pleis pitched a three-hitter and Jim Lemon hit his first homer of the campaign for the Twins who now lead the American League by one game. Kaat had a one-hitter until the eighth when he faltered and Pleis went in to hold the Red Sox hitless over the last 1½ innings. Lenny Green went 4-for-4 for the Twins.

Rebels Down Lakers On Diamond Friday

South Marshall downed Calloway County 11-7 in its baseball debut Friday at the Marshall County School.

The Lakers out-hit the Rebels 9 to 6 but committed three more errors as South collected timely clouts for the win. Calloway notched a run in the opening frame only to have the Rebels bounce back with six runs in their half of the first.

The Lakers scored again with a single run in the second, and again in the fourth. South poked on four runs in the bottom of the fourth for a 10-4 edge and added another in the bottom of the fifth. The Lakers then came through with four tallies in the sixth for the final scoring.

Cothran was the winning pitcher and led South hitting with a double and a single. Danny Roberts starred for the Lakers with two home runs.

Doubleheader Split By MSC-Middle

Murray State and visiting Middle Tennessee split a doubleheader here yesterday after the Blue Raiders had chalked up a 6-5 win in the opening game. The Racers took the second contest 3-2.

Murray picked up its first run in the second, added three more in the third and came back for another in the sixth in what appeared to be a wrap win for the Racers.

Middle exploded with a five-run rally in the seventh inning and snared the winning run in the ninth.

The second game went almost the opposite as the Blue Raiders went on top 1-0 in the fourth and took the lead again 2-1 in the sixth after Murray scored in the bottom of the fifth. The Racers tied the count 2-2 in the seventh and got the winning run in the last of the ninth.
